

Press Note for Korean Film Festival 2018

18th May, 2018

The Consulate General of the Republic of Korea in Mumbai in collaboration with the National Film Archive of India (NFAI) are scheduled to host the '2018 Korean Film Festival' on 7th & 8th June, 2018 at the 'NFAI Auditorium' in Pune.

South Korean cinema has been on the rise for a couple of decades now, with its impact having already become a global phenomenon, both in terms of quality and commercial success. This prowess has been highlighted in the last decade, where their number of superior films is greater than ever.

The world's attention to the traditional culture of Korea is growing and is recognized as the competitive cultural art that is as skilled if not more than with any other performance of other countries.

The genres of the films to be screened this time are broad and we have 'The King of Jokgu' in the Sports & Comedy category, 'My Love My Bride' in the Romance & Drama category, 'Duresori - The Voice of the East' in the Teen Musical category and 'The Nameless Gangster, Rules of the Time' in the Crime & action category.

We hope to provide an opportunity for the viewers to really transcend the Korean cinematic experience with interesting plot twists and where the stories are fresh and original that is sometimes is happy, sad, scary or hilarious.
